Thank you for this information Sue.

The IPC Press office has confirmed that it will be issuing a media release and placing adverts in the local press 7-10 days in advance of the drop-ins session. They also plan to have copies of the advice note and hard copies on the registration form available at each location.

Kate I think the CLP members would find it helpful and perhaps a little reassuring to understand that the IPC intends to promote the events. Please could you advise them accordingly because from the information shared yesterday it was not clear how this would be happening. Accordingly, Covanta will not publicise these events in its Community Newsletter.

Kind regards

Rachel

As agreed at the CLP meeting last night here is the e-mail contact for Peter Rickett who I have been in contact with regarding a visit by IPC and Planning Aid Officers to the council offices and a library to be available to explain the process to the public and to assist in filling in registration forms if people do not want to do this online.

Peter's e-mail address is:

Peter Rickett [Peter.Rickett@infrastructure.gsi.gov.uk]

tel: 0303 444 5005

This visit was to be on 3th October but has been changed to 22nd October.

the proposed times are:

10.30 - 12.00 Bedford Borough Council, Town Hall, Bedford

13.30-15.00 Central Bedfordshire Council, Priory House, Chicksands

15.30 - 17.00 Ampthill library

There will be copies of the advice note and registration form available.

If Maureen is no longer joining Covanta I assume this means that you will remain the main point of contact.
